

PROJECTCLIMA, COLOURFUL HEATING

PROJECTCLIMA has recently presented the New General Catalogue of their Designer Radiators production with 12 New Collections of the ADACTO series.

PROJECTCLIMA radiators can be adapted to fit any space and create just the right customized solution for anyone's need.

Not only comfort and technology: PROJECTCLIMA proposes radiant elements that can be placed in any architectural and furnishing situation. Together with the high performance of the element and the Patented Covers System, ADACTO is the new way of interpreting domestic heating.

Thanks to the possibility to personalize every space choosing forms and colours- with the ADACTO range- a simple but revolutionary collection has been created. Offices, lofts, shop and public spaces can also find in ADACTO the right solution in line with the choice of style and colours of any ambience.
